

Some Disorder

THE DISORDERS

Keep on following your dreams
As insane as it seems
Wake up right now,
You're not in a can of beans

Singing songs in your bed
With your panties on your head
Don't look at them,
And don't lose the thread

They have narrow minds
They are deaf, they are blind,
Stuck in a bottle,
But there is no wine

They don't give you a chance
And they look you askance,
You should don't care
Come on and dance now

Do not get caught
By the tentacles of a perfect world
They are the truth, don't you deny
The brainless crowd will never lie
Now let's create a disaster
It's fun to make some disorder

Got craziness inside
Let it go for a ride,
Honey, don't be shy
You have anything to hide

In this world they are pawns
The rules turned them in clowns
Think they should be proud ?
Don't you want to scream out loud

And just follow your path
Make bubbles in your bath,
Just be yourself
Not the one they want

Climb the Eiffel tower
Put your life in order
They are so far
They don't have disorders
